No rockets or agent were processed Tuesday through Saturday due to ongoing maintenance activities. No rockets or agent were processed Sunday and Monday due to a minor event involving smoke and a small flame in the explosive containment room. During this event there was no release of chemical agent nor was there any danger to plant personnel, the public or the environment. PBCDF expects operations to remain paused for the next several days in order to review the event, accomplish minor equipment repairs and testing, and review procedures.
